Agreement for Use of the Temple Facilities for Shabbat Dinners

Due to the popularity of Shabbat dinner hosted by our Temple families, we have established some guidelines to make the evening run smoothly. The transition from dinner to the beginning of Shabbat worship must be handled in a timely fashion, so all Temple members and their guests will be able to participate in the service.

The family using the Temple facilities for a Friday evening Shabbat dinner agrees to comply with the following:

- The family agrees to vacate the space used for the dinner by 7:15 pm.
- The family is responsible for their guests with regard to this Agreement, and agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Temple for any and all damage or injury to the premises or any person during the course of said dinner, except in the event of negligence on the part of the Temple or its employees.
- The family agrees to keep ALL food and beverages within the confines of the space used for the dinner.
- The rental fee of $400 will be paid to Barnert Temple.
- If a caterer is employed by the family, said caterer must provide a Certificate of Insurance and a security deposit of $750 to be returned after the event.

I have read this Agreement, understand it and will comply with the rules therein.
